Lucy: Do you often use it?

Taro: Yes, I do.

Lucy: What do you use it for?

Taro: I write and send e-mails to my friends. I sometimes play computer games too. I enjoy playing them after I finish my homework. My mother always tells me to finish my homework first. Here, look at this.

Lucy: Oh, this is an e-mail in English.

Taro: It's from Eric, a friend of mine in Canada. We are good friends. We send e-mails to each other every week.

Lucy: Does Eric use Japanese in his e-mails?

Taro: No, he doesn't. We always use English. I'm interested in learning English. Writing e-mails in English is a good way for me to learn English.

Lucy: I see.

Taro: I got a new computer game yesterday, Lucy. Do you want to play it?

Lucy: But we have math homework today.

Taro: Then let's do that first.

Lucy: OK.

オーストラリアから来た留学生の Bill がクラスで行ったスピーチを聞いて、その内容に対する (1) ~ (3) の質問の答えとして最も適切なものを、ア~エの中から 1 つずつ選び、その記号を書きなさい。

では、始めます。

I've enjoyed my school life with you here in Japan, but I have to return to Australia next week. I've stayed here for only two months, but now I have a lot of new friends.

Many of you in this class asked me to join clubs or sports teams. Tadashi asked me to join the basketball team. Hitomi wanted me to join the English club. At first I wanted to join the judo club, because I'm interested in Japanese sports. But Atsushi asked me to join the soccer team again and again. So I became a soccer team member.

I practiced soccer very hard almost every day. When I practiced soccer, I tried to use Japanese. It was not easy for me. When I did not understand what my team members were saying, they used easy Japanese. When I used wrong Japanese, they told me how to use it in the right way. Now I can talk easily with my team members and classmates in Japanese. I want to say "Thank you" to everyone.

I am going to leave this school next week, on March 12. I want to go on the school trip with you in June, but I can't. I hope I'll see you again. Thank you very much for everything.

Question 1: Which club or team did Bill want to join at first?

Question 2: When did Bill come to this school for the first time?

Question 3: Why did Bill make this speech?

(英文と質問を繰り返します。)
